Financial Literacy Short Course

Course Overview

Financial literacy is a core life skill. In a rapidly changing world of personal finances people benefit from gaining and applying important knowledge, understanding, skills and behaviours to establish good consumer and financial habits.

Financial literacy is a combination of financial knowledge, skills, attitudes, and behaviours necessary to make sound financial decisions based on personal circumstances to improve financial wellbeing.

The Financial Literacy Short Course aims to:

- raise awareness of financial literacy and its benefits
- create opportunities for all ages and backgrounds to increase their understanding of financial issues, and
- make the most of their money.

Entry requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for this course. Learners are likely to have little or no experience in financial literacy.

To allow our trainers to support your learning, you will need to complete a student profile, including a language, literacy and numeracy indicator before your enrolment application is accepted.

Delivery Method and Course Duration

This short course is available for face-to-face classroom learning environment. The total duration of this short course will be 25 hours and will take the following format:

– 1 week full-time 5 days (9:00am – 3:00pm each day)

Additional support and training times are available for students if required.

Online platform requires either PC, phone or tablet.

Course Structure

This course contains one (1) unit of competency requiring successful completion.

One (1) Unit:

- FNSFLT211 Develop and use personal budgets

Register Your Interest

Ready to apply or want to refer someone? Click here to begin your application.

AQF Certification Outcome

Students who successfully complete all requirements FNSFLT211 Develop and use personal budgets will be issued a Statement of Attainment by MAX.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfers (CT)

RPL is a process that assesses your competency - acquired through formal and informal learning - to determine if you meet the requirements for a unit of study. Students with previous skills, knowledge or experience are entitled to apply for RPL for a full qualification or individual units of competency. Students will be required to produce evidence and undertake assessment as part of the RPL process.

Since this course consists of only one unit of competency, it does not qualify for Credit Transfer. You can find more information about RPL and Credit Transfer in our Resulting, Credit Transfers & Recognition of Prior Learning Policy and Procedure (Training)

Unique Student Identifier

It is mandatory for all students undertaking Nationally Recognised Training in Australia to have a USI, Unique Student Identifier.

You will need your USI in order to apply to enrol for training. Visit www.usi.gov.au for more information.

Course Outcomes

This course aims to build the independent financial literacy of students. Students who successfully complete the course will be able develop, implement, and monitor a personal budget.

Referrals

If you would like to refer yourself or a customer, please use the form below. You may be required to submit forms of identification pending the funding requirements.

Study with Max Solutions RTO

We deliver training across a range of levels, with a focus on understanding each student's goals and helping them choose the right course to get there.